

Bungkillew -Unforgettable Historical Account of the Life of the Early Kalanguya

Dudduli describes that in the history of Kalanguya, headhunters from nearby places raided the Kalanguya area, particularly in Ahin. It was said that some of the ancestors migrated due to the unstable peace and order of the place.

“DUDDULI”

Leticia D. Guinsiman PhD

Dîneng kan dudduli	Quiet my dear little snail
Denglen ku’y nangih akki	I will listen to Akki’s cry
Di gawan bel-ew ali.	In the middle of the woods
Dîneng kan dudduli	Quiet my dear little snail
Denglen ku’y nangih akki	I will listen to Akki’s cry
Di gawan bel-ew ali.	In the middle of the woods

Di gawan bel-ew amman	In the middle of the woods
Gawan bihûlak amman	At the center of that plant
Et tayu ngu ayagan.	Let us go and call for her
Ay apaw i Diyapen	Oh, alas in Dayapen
Binungkillew day dappatan	Marauders raided anywhere
Immahbuk i kailyan.	Villagers scattered anywhere
Dîneng kan dudduli	Quiet my dear little snail
Denglen ku'y nangih akki	I will listen to Akki's cry
Di gawan bel –ew ali	In the middle of the woods

POEMS

