

Care for the Aged Parents

Gâgawang Gâgahukli reminds the role of the children to care for their aged parents and to help them especially in fetching water. Houses were commonly built above the streams therefore; children had to go downhill to fetch water. Children were always expected to do errand such as, fetching water and cooking food.

“GÂGAWANG GÂGAHUKLI”

Leticia D. Guinsiman PhD

Gâgawang gâgahukli	Oh, beautiful little crow
Muwak i âh-ahuli	Come fetch water for me
Hanta ka laglagbui	I am going to pay you
Ni putputling ni ubi	A piece of sweet potato
Igya mangu hi Agguban	Here is little Agguban

Muwak i âh-ahuli

Come fetch water for me
