

“LEGEND OF DANGGO”

Leticia D. Guinsiman, PhD

Di Danggo men hakey ni barangay ni kadawian di munisipyu ni Tinoc. Hayya ni ili i ka ik-ikutan ngem natalna.

Dakel ni tuu i ag-akin amta nem hipay kuhtu ni nalpuan ni ngadan niya ni Danggo. Hutta amta'n katuu-tuu ket naipangadan iman gapu ta nabaknang iya'n ili ni danggo.

Danggo is one of the farthest barangays in the municipality of Tinoc, and a small and peaceful village.

Many people who are unfamiliar with the origin of Danggo believe that the barangay was named after the abundance of danggo, a vernacular term for leek.

The Legend of Danggo explains how the barangay got its name from a local plant, danggo, which means "leek" in the Kalanguya language. The story reflects the close relationship between the community and their natural environment. It also shows how people use familiar
